1883.

LANCASTER, PA., January 4th, 1883.

Collectors will please notice that present sale, at the request of the owner, is held in New York instead of Lancaster, as heretofore. As this will necessitate our leaving for that city the previous day, we request the sending of all bids as early as possible. Should you have any reason to doubt the receipt of your letter in Lancaster before or on the day previous to sale, forward to New York, care of the auctioneers, Messrs. Bangs & Co.

In reply to many inquiries in regard to the Coin Journal, we would state that on account of the rapid succession of our sales, we have been unable to spare the time necessary for the proper preparation of copy for same but will endeavor to get an issue out this month yet. If unable to do so, mention of the discontinuance of the paper will be given in our next Sale Catalogue and subscriptions refunded.

Thanking all for past patronage and hoping to receive a few bids from each collector receiving this catalogue, I remain

Yours truly,
